Annual Report and Accounts 2022

The Tony Loy Trust was set up in 2012 in memory of Tony Loy. The object of the Trust is:

To advance the education, support the development and provide opportunities for children and young people under the age of 25, individually or in groups, in the village of Blewbury and neighbouring area in the arts and sport, in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by:

- providing grants, allowances or scholarships
- supporting training
- assisting travel, events or projects

The Trustees are Sheila Loy, Francesca Gubbay, Maria Nightingale and Steve White.

A summary statement of the Trust's income and expenditure in 2022 is attached.

This is the tenth full year of operation of the Trust. We received donations of £1201, which included a generous individual donation of £200 and a donation from the Blewbury Players of £789 from the profits of their annual music quiz. We also received a number of donations in memory of Audrey Wood, who was a strong supporter of the Trust and young people in Blewbury.

Our main fundraising event was, for the second year running, The Take That Experience Concert in Blewbury Village Hall. This made a profit of £1016.

We awarded nine grants totalling £3560, of which £1800 covered sporting activities, including motorcycle racing, triathlon, girls football and boys rugby, and £1760 covered arts activities, including music, performing arts and the purchase of a piano.

Over its ten years of operation, the Trust has awarded 96 grants totalling £45,752 to young people in Blewbury and the surrounding area. 58% of these have related to sporting activities and 42% to the arts. The grants have covered a very wide range of projects and activities, as can be seen by the case studies on our website. We are very proud to be supporting the development of young people, in Tony's name, and grateful for the contributions and encouragement of all our supporters.

The Trust ended the year with cash of £14,112 and remains in a strong position to continue supporting young people in the sports and the arts.

More information about the activities of the trust can be found on our website www.thetonyloytrust.org and Facebook page.
