The Tony Loy Trust

Charity Number 1163810

Annual Report and Accounts 2025

The Tony Loy Trust was set up in 2012 in memory of Tony Loy. The object of the Trust is:

To advance the education, support the development and provide opportunities for children and young people under the age of 25, individually or in groups, in the village of Blewbury and neighbouring area in the arts and sport, in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by:

- providing grants, allowances or scholarships
- supporting training
- assisting travel, events or projects

The Trustees are Sheila Loy, Francesca Gubbay, Maria Nightingale and Steve White.

A summary statement of the Trust's income and expenditure in 2025 is attached.

This was the thirteenth full year of operation of the Trust. It was relatively quiet. We received donations of £939, which included a donation of £450 from Mark Shayler, who provided concrete for the base of a new shed for the Blewbury Players free of charge, on the understanding that the Players would in turn transfer money to the Trust. We also received £135 from the sale of greeting cards of paintings by local artist Peter Ritson, who also makes a contribution to the Trust whenever he sells a painting. We are grateful to all our donors and supporters.

The Trust awarded eight grants totalling £3,300, of which five related to music and theatre and three to sport, including a contribution towards the refurbishment of a local school's swimming pool.

Over its thirteen years of operation, the Trust has awarded 135 grants totalling £65,202 to young people in Blewbury and the surrounding area. 56% of these by value have related to sporting activities and 44% to the arts. The grants have covered a very wide range of projects and activities, as can be seen by the case studies on our website. We are very proud to be supporting the development of young people, in Tony's name, and grateful for the contributions and encouragement of all our supporters.

The Trust ended the year with cash of £10,574 enabling it to continue supporting young people in the sports and the arts.
