Annual Report and Accounts 2021

The Tony Loy Trust was set up in 2012 in memory of Tony Loy. The object of the Trust is:

To advance the education, support the development and provide opportunities for children and young people under the age of 25, individually or in groups, in the village of Blewbury and neighbouring area in the arts and sport, in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by:

- providing grants, allowances or scholarships
- supporting training
- assisting travel, events or projects

The Trustees are Sheila Loy, Francesca Gubbay, Maria Nightingale and Steve White.

A summary statement of the Trust's income and expenditure in 2021 is attached.

This is the ninth full year of operation of the Trust. Following the slump due to the pandemic in 2020, income picked up in the year. Donations were £2207.10, which included a generous individual donation of £1000 and a donation from the Blewbury Players of £798.09 from the profits of their annual music quiz. The sale of cards printed from the paintings of Roy East also contributed £163.50.

The main boost to income came from The Take That Experience Concert, which was the inaugural event in the newly refurbished Blewbury Village Hall and proved very popular, making a profit of £1900.

We awarded six grants totalling £2650, of which £1500 covered sporting activities, including motorcycle racing, athletics and triathlon, and £1,150 covered arts activities, including music and opera.

Over its nine years of operation, the Trust has awarded 87 grants totalling £42,192 to young people in Blewbury and the surrounding area. 60% Of these have related to sporting activities and 40% to the arts. The grants have covered a very wide range of projects and activities, as can be seen by the case studies on our website. We are very proud to be supporting the development of young people, in Tony's name, and grateful for the contributions and encouragement of all our supporters.

The Trust ended the year with cash of £15,716 and remains in a strong position to continue supporting young people in the sports and the arts.

More information about the activities of the trust can be found on our website www.thetonyloytrust.org and Facebook page.
